Do not park in the handicap spot unless you have a handicap placard on display. Please do not park or pull into the reserved owners' parking spots. The Citibank parking lot behind us always has space available. It's $1 cash for 20 minutes

Shoes & Attire

BALLET: Ballet Shoes (Any pink, split-sole Ballet shoes – leather or cloth)

JAZZ: Jazz Shoes (We prefer "Bloch" slip on Jazz shoes with the elastic V on the top of the foot in tan)

HIP HOP: Tennis Shoes

LYRICAL OR CONTEMPORARY: Barefoot, Half-Soles or Jazz shoes. (For Jazz Shoes, we prefer "Bloch" slip on Jazz shoes with the elastic V on the top of the foot in tan. For Half Soles, we prefer the Capezio "Turning Pointe 55" Pirouettes Shoes in tan.)

ACRO: Barefoot

TAP: Black, slip on or lace up "leather" tap shoes are preferred for all dancers 7 years & up. 3-6 year olds can wear the patent leather kind with the ribbon tie or strap.

If you already have shoes that aren't exactly like the descriptions above that's ok. When you go to purchase new shoes, please try to get the suggested styles above.

DANCE ATTIRE:

We do not believe in enforcing a leotard & tights dress code. We feel that young, adolescent children who have to look at themselves in a mirror during class should be comfortable in what they're wearing. If dancers wish to wear leotard and tights, they are more than welcome to do so. Most of our dancers wear booty shorts or leggings with tank tops or dance half tops. Our littlest dancers tend to wear a leotard with an attached skirt/tutu. No dresses or skirts (without shorts or leotards), no jeans, and nothing too baggy.

HAIR:

Dancers must have their hair up for all classes. (If dancers are taking a Hip-Hop class, they may ask their teacher if they can have their hair down.)
